

Question Formation and Question Words

Español I
Capítulo Dos

Forming Questions

- To ask a question that may be answered sí or no, just raise the pitch of your voice at the end of the question.
- The subject, if included, can go before or after the verb.
- Ejemplos:
 - ¿Eres extrovertido? - Are you outgoing?
 - ¿La profesora es simpática? - Is the teacher nice?
 - ¿Es simpática la profesora? - Is the teacher nice?

Forming Questions

- You can answer a question like this with sí or no.
- You say the word no twice in your answer: once to mean no and another time to mean not.
- Ejemplos: ¿Eres atlético? - Are you athletic?
 Sí, soy atlético. - Yes, I'm athletic.
 No, no soy atlético. - No, I'm not athletic.

Question Words

- ◉ Cómo- How
- ◉ Cuál- Which
- ◉ Cuáles- Which ones
- ◉ Cuándo- When
- ◉ Cuánto/a- How much
- ◉ Cuántos/as- How much
- ◉ Quién- Who
- ◉ Quiénes- Who (plural)
- ◉ Dónde- Where
- ◉ De dónde- Where from
- ◉ Adónde- To where